

Tomorrow the 38th (Welsh) Division will have the honour of being in the front line of what will be the big battle of the war.

On the deeds of each individual of the Division depends whether it shall be said that the 38th (Welsh) Division took Pilckem and Langemark, and upheld gloriously the honour of Wales and the British Empire.

The honour can be obtained by hard fighting and self sacrifice on the part of each one of us.

“GWELL ANGAU NA CHYWILYDD.”

C. G. BLACKADER, MAJOR-GENERAL.

The above will be distributed to all Officers and read by them to their men.

H. E. ap RHYS PRYCE, LIEUT.-COLONEL,
G.S.O. 1,
38th (Welsh) Division.
